2013 DIOCESAN ASSEMBLY

Diocese of the South, Orthodox Church in America

Crash Room Code of Conduct Agreement

The Crash Room is an after-hours "Teen Only Hangout" for ages 14-18 during the DOS assembly. This supervised room has been set up with games, movies, music, and snacks.

Teens are required to sign in and out of the crash room.

The Crash Room is open Monday, 9p – 12mid, Tuesday, 10p-12mid, Wednesday, 9p-2a. The room will close promptly at the appointed time, at which time the teens will be asked to sign out and return to their rooms. Once a teen signs out of the room, it is required that the teen will retire to their hotel room for the night and are no longer the responsibility of the chaperones.

Participation and use of the Crash Room is a privilege.

As an Orthodox Christian, it is expected that behavior will be one that exhibits respect, love and honor for one another.

For the teen:

I understand that at all times and in all places, I represent Christ in and through my actions. I will act in a way that is becoming to my Orthodox faith in and out of the crash room. While using the crash room, if I act in a way that is inappropriate, I may be asked to leave the crash room. I understand my parents will be notified.

I have reviewed this letter agree to behave appropriately and responsibly. I understand that I will be required to sign in and out. When I sign myself out of the crash room, I will return promptly to my hotel room and will not cause any disruption to other guests within the hotel.
